Fab, Fab February in Miami Beach

Celebrity chefs at the SoBe Wine & Food Festival, Celebrity DJs at the Winter Party Festival, Comedy Fests and Boat shows, Whew! February has everything for everyone who visits Miami Beach this month

Miami Beach, FL – February 15, 2012 – It’s the height of the winter season and there’s nowhere better to be than Miami Beach. This month, the city is host to a wealth and variety of events for all tastes and interests for the discerning traveler underscoring Miami Beach as the destination of choice for foodies, sports and leisure lovers and the GLBT market.

Come for the Miami Beach Boat Show which begins on February 16th and stay for the 11th annual Food Network South Beach Wine and Food Festival which begins on February 23rd. From the Whole Foods Market Grand Tasting Village tents to Paula Deen’s Sunday brunch, the Festival is one of the most anticipated events of its kind, drawing over 50,000 visitors last year.

“There’s nowhere else like Miami Beach at any time of the year but the month of February is exceptional with its unique and staggering number of events and activities,” says Grisette Roque Marcos, Executive Director, Miami Beach Visitor and Convention Authority. “Boredom is not an option here as visitors and residents face an overload of events that involve such a range of interests from boating to wine tasting to music and comedy fests..... all with great weather and beautiful beaches to top it off. Where else in the world would you want to be?”

To round out the month, music and comedy lovers will be in heaven when the Winter Party Festival directed at the GLBT market and featuring celebrity DJs Alain Jackinsky, Billy Lace, and Danny Verde among others, hits the beach on February 29, the same day that the South Beach Comedy Fest roars into town with big league comics like Lewis Black, Bill Bellamy and Aziz Ansari and buzzed about emerging talents like Amy Schumer and Renee Gauthier. It’s a month of non-stop action. Miami Beach in February: Everything for Everyone.
